West Andover Residents Feel Rezoning An Ulterior Motive

By Susan K. O'Neill

It was introduced as a "simple article," in the words of Principal Planner Nancy Jeton. But, to Tuesday night's assembled audience of abutters—a crowd so sizable that it had to be shifted to a larger room than originally planned—the Planning Board's proposed rezoning of part of Chandler Road was a call to arms.

The public hearing had been called to discuss a Planning Board article, labeled P-65 on the preliminary copy of the Town Meeting warrant, in which the board proposed to rezone a 300-foot-deep strip of land along West Andover's Chandler Road from Industrial D to Single Residence C.

Both actually and symbolically, the land lies between two distinct zoning worlds. The land directly across Chandler Road lies in Andover's largest SRC-designated area.

On its side of Chandler Road—behind it, in effect—the contested strip abuts land which shares its ID zoning. That land, which is in Andover's largest ID zone, is owned and used by large industries such as Wang and GCA.

Some of the land in the controversial strip belongs to long-time residents and is in residential use. Some of it is held by the abutting industries.

Jeton opened the discussion of her "simple article" by explaining that the zoning change, which would move the SRC boundary 300 feet north, to include property on the north side of Chandler Road, had been proposed to keep Chandler Road from becoming a point of access for the industries.

"The intent of the proposal is to keep industrial traffic off Chandler Road," she said. "This ID zone was created in the '50's, when this was all primarily agricultural land." Since that time, she said, the land's use had changed considerably; properties had changed hands and industries had built in the zone.

River Road, which carries the brunt of traffic to and from the industries, is being widened to better serve as an access route, said Jeton. But, because the industries now hold—and have the capacity to buy—land along Chandler Road, they have the potential to create access to their businesses from that roadway. Their rights to do so are clear under the present ID zoning.

The proposed zoning change would place a 300-foot strip of that Chandler Road land under the town's most restrictive residential zoning use laws, Jeton explained. As SRC land, it could be used for the building of residences conforming to the bylaws, but it could not be used by industry for access or building.

Don Barber of the West Andover Neighborhood Association said West Andover residents, have become leary of

A Poignant Loss

By Lisa Waterman

Bob King

From classrooms to Wall Street, the world was shocked Tuesday morning, when the space shuttle Challenger exploded one minute and a half after liftoff, taking with it all seven members aboard.

For Andover High physics teacher, Robert T. King, the loss was particularly poignant.

Last February, Bob King was in self-imposed training, the immediate goal was to lose 30 pounds—the long term was the hope of being selected to be the teacher-astronaut in space.

King, 17 William St., decided to apply for NASA's Teacher in Space Project last winter when he came across a memo announcing the program. He looked up the eligibility requirements and became one thousands of teachers from the United States and its territories competing for a seat on the Space Shuttle, leaving sometime in early 1986, according to an article by Susan Rand in a Feb. 28, 1985, issue of the TOWNSMAN.

Along with becoming fit to fly, the high school physics teacher was preparing experiments, he would try in his voyage through space.

"The 'G' field and the measurement of inertial mass using an inertial balance and then there is the absolute zero demonstration using fixed volume of gas with a pressure at temperature extremes," he enthusiastically told Rand.

That April, when each state and territory nominated two candidates, King was not selected.

Last Tuesday, the high school physics teacher shared the same emotion of people throughout the country, who were watching the delayed space shuttle lift-off.

"I was stunned when I saw the Challenger explode," King said. "It reminded me of the time when John Kennedy died. When you're involved in something like this, you take a particular interest in it."

Although, Bob King never met Christa McAuliffe, 37, the Concord, N.H., social studies teacher, who was to be the first volunteers are welcome to attend. Light refreshments will be served.

The commission is also seeking volunteers for its land management group to work with the commission and the overseers in planning and coordinating management activities.

Members of both groups are appointed by the town manager with the approval of the selectmen.

For further information, call the conservation office at Town Hall.

ernment agencies. Rep. Tucker encourages citizens to express their opinions on the issues facing the legislature this spring.

BABY TALK

by Jack Resnick

The issue of toilet training is difficult because it is the first big test of the child's sense of self, which usually begins around age two. It is the subject that most perplexes parents and leaves them frustrated and confused. A child should not be toilet trained until he shows clear interest in the subject - asks to wear underpants, is dry for long period or is very interested in older brothers' or sisters' use of the toilet - usually 2½ to 3½ years of age. The key to toilet training is to wait. Easier said than done - but when a child is ready it happens in a matter of days - when they are not, it is a struggle which seems to last forever.

Show Features Two Andovers

When the Andover Historical Society presents its historic slide show on the "Two Andovers" for the public on Sunday, Feb. 2, at 2 p.m. at the Historical Society, 97 Main St., it will cover many visual aspects of the history of what was once a single community.

This show gives an overall view of historical structures in the Andovers. It is one of eight slide shows prepared by the society to help contemporary Andover residents better understand their community's rich cultural heritage. These shows are offered to the public on the first Sunday of each month at the Amos Blanchard House.

Included in this offering of more than 100 slides and accompanying script are 14 old homes, six churches, three private schools and three historic cemeteries. This presentation will evoke a long-past lifestyle which is the heritage of both old-timers and newcomers in this community.

Among the houses covered are Moody Bridges, Parson Barnard, Kittredge, Samuel Osgood and Phillips homes in what is now North Andover and Abbot Tavern, Rose Cottage, Benjamin Abbot House, Phelps mansion, Bullfinch Hall, Stowe House, America House and the Amos Blanchard House in Andover.

The six old church buildings pictured on this "tour" of the Andovers are the Unitarian Church (1836) in North Parish and the Free Church (1846), Baptist Church (1834), St. Augustine's (1895), South Church (1861) and Christ Church (1886) in South Parish.

Also shown are buildings of the three private schools which gave Andover its academic distinction: Abbot Academy, Phillips Academy and the Andover Theological Seminary.

Briefly described are three old burial grounds: the first (1660) in North Andover, South Church (1710) and the chapel cemetery (1810) where Harriet Beecher Stowe is buried.

Although this slide show does not cover everything of local historical interest, it does reveal a good deal and affords an opportunity to see some history unfold before your eyes in an historical setting. Admission is nominal and the public is invited. Seating will be on a first-come, first-serve basis.

For information on open hours, exhibitions, tours, special events and membership, call the society office, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Blood Depository At Hospital

Bon Secours Hospital of Methuen, Inc., and YourBlood, Inc., a national organization, have affiliated to establish YourBlood of Massachusetts, a frozen autologous blood bank program.

Autologous blood transfusion is the process by which individuals can collect and store units of their own blood for future use. When a blood transfusion is necessary, the safest blood to receive is one's own because it is completely compatible with one's own body and risk of disease transmitted by blood is eliminated. Autologous blood transfusions offer peace of mind to those scheduling elective surgery, individuals with rare blood types, various religious sects and anyone concerned about the future.

Located at Bon Secours Hospital, YourBlood provides a blood depository where blood is drawn, screened, identified and stored in a secure, frozen state until needed. The donation and storage process is carried out by professionally trained laboratory technologists under the supervision of a physician.

According to Robert J. Cross, M.D., Bon Secours' director of laboratories, "We're very pleased to announce the establishment of the YourBlood program at Bon Secours Hospital. One of the most precious gifts an individual can give others is blood and, of course, we continue our support of voluntary blood donor programs."

Band Members Get Awards

They had to make do without a public address system, and some of their awards were absent, but parents of Andover High School Marching Band members brought their enthusiasm and turned out in force on Friday night to honor their children's musical accomplishments.

Andover Band Association Treasurer Tom Ciaccia opened the awards banquet, held at the Elks Hall in Andover, by inviting other parents to join him in a standing ovation for the band and its members. "Their reward is a band that exceeds their competition," he said. "Our reward is them."

Raising his voice to accommodate for the lack of amplification - because, he explained, the Elks' P.A. system had been stolen from the hall a few days earlier - Association President Bob Mirisola awarded letters to the 48 band and color guard members. The award pins that had been earmarked for graduating seniors had to be given in spirit - they had been returned to the manufacturer earlier in the year to correct a color error and had not been sent back.

Band director Marc Keroack gave out a handful of more specific awards. Receiving his certificates were: Kristin Duffy (Most Valuable Player); John Stephens and Stacey Enos (Best Players for high school and junior high); Steve Devoir and Sue Boush (Best Marchers, high school and junior high); Kim O'Neill (Best Rookie); John Pelz (Most Improved); Sheryl Stephens and Karen Gray (Most Enthusiastic); and Mark Balboni (Worst Marcher).

Keroack explained that he had selected Balboni, who accepted his award in the humorous spirit in which it was given, on the advice of many other band members. "I also picked him because he was one of the few I could award it to who wouldn't break down and cry," he added.

Receiving letters and/or pins and recognition for their roles as band and color guard members were:

Seniors: Arlene Ciaccia, Kristin Duffy, Linda Farr, Karen Gray, Kathy Malone, Melissa Marquis, Lisa Oberst, and John Stephens.

Sophomores: Wayne Buschmann, Garrett Day, Greg DeVoir, Stephen DeVoir, David Friedenson, Karen Galvin, Becky Ommundson, Rebecca

Eighth grade: Kristen Galvin, Elaine O'Brien, and Laurie Lussier.

Kristin Duffy and Bobbi Williams also received bouquets of flowers in appreciation of their performances as Drum Major and Color Guard Captain.

Rugs Exhibit Displays Works Of Modern Textile Artists

"Peconic" by Sonja Flavin of Rochester, N.Y., will be featured in a new exhibit, "Rugs: Contemporary Handwoven Floorcoverings," at the Museum of American Textile History, North Andover. The juried exhibition, featuring the works of 15 northeastern textile artists, will be on display February 9 through June 15. "Peconic" is a double interlocking tapestry of linen and wool, measuring 71 inches by 60 inches.

"Rugs: Contemporary Handwoven Floorcoverings," a juried exhibition of the works of 15 northeastern textile artists, will open February 9 at the Museum of American Textile History, 800 Massachusetts, North Andover.

"The works selected for display show a wide range of styles, encompassing traditional forms and very modern visual statements," says Diane L. Fagan Affleck, associate curator of textiles. "Each rug in the exhibition represents a commitment of creative energy, time and hard work."

Rag rugs, such as an untitled piece by Brian D. McPherson of Contoocook, N.H., are simple in structure. "A rag rug challenges the weaver to design a textile that takes advantage of the variations in color, size and texture of the rag strips used as weft," says Fagan Affleck.

"Extraordinary freedom of design can be achieved with the tapestry technique which allows the weaver to place each design element only where necessary to create the desired pattern," she says. The tapestry technique is shown in "Rug for a Sticky Settle" and "Peconic" by Sonja Flavin of Rochester, N.Y., and "Geometric #4" by Sharon Iranpour of Rochester.

A Norwegian type of weaving known as Krokbragd, meaning crooked path, is displayed in four works: "Gustave" by Rosemary Olmsted of Plattsburgh, N.Y., "Mulled Wine" by Margaret V. Auger of Northwood, N.H., "After Turner" by Mary Kasper of Florence, and an untitled work by Barbara Lucke of Rochester, N.Y.

"Krokbragd, a highly controlled weave, shows how important the creative sense of each weaver is in manipulating his or her materials within the parameters of the structure," says Fagan Affleck.

More than 100 entries were submitted for the exhibit by textile artists from throughout the northeastern United States. The jurors considered each entry on the basis of design, color and overall concept, as well as technical competence and the ability of the piece to function as a floor-covering.

Members of the jury, who represent a spectrum of professionals in the textile field, were Max Lenderman, Leslie Voiers and Louise Woodhead.

Lenderman is a faculty member of the School for American Craftsmen at Rochester, (N.Y.) Institute of Technology. He is a charter member of the Handweavers Guild of America.

The author of "Looking at Twills" and "The Fabric Book," Voiers is director, in-house weaver/designer and coordinator of education programs of the Weaving Center at Harrisville (N.H.) Designs.

Woodhead, the Oriental rug specialist for the Bolton Gallery of Robert W. Skinner, Inc. is also a spinner and weaver.

The Museum of American Textile History is a nationally recognized institution that seeks to collect, preserve and interpret objects and information related to the production of textiles in America.

"While the museum does not collect the works of contemporary textile craftsmen, it wishes to promote an interest in contemporary textile arts and to foster an understanding of the relationships between past and present textile production," says Fagan Afflick.

"Rugs: Contemporary Handwoven Floorcoverings" will be on display until June 15. Visitors to the museum can also view the permanent exhibit, "Factory Labor: Shaping Work in America," which features 18th through 20th century textile machinery in operation and shows how the industrial revolution made radical changes in how people work.

The Museum of American Textile History is open Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Guided tours are available at 10:30 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and at 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Art Auction Benefits Band

The Andover Band Association will sponsor an art auction on Saturday, Feb. 8, at the Elks Lodge, 400 South Main St., Andover. The inventory, which is being presented by Miter Biter Frame Company of Melrose, will be on view starting at 7 p.m.; auction will begin at 8.

Included in the admission fee will be cheese and cracker snacks, dessert and coffee. A cash bar will also be available.

The auction is one of a number of fund-raisers scheduled each year by the Association, which is made up of parents of Andover High School Marching Band members. Profits from such activities are used to support band-related programs and purchases, including summer band camp, special musical and marching arrangements, and new instruments for the department. According to band parent Gail Nichols, who is coordinating the event, the profits from the auction will depend upon both the number of people attending and the amount spent on art.

According to Nichols, Miter Biter's owner James Halligan, who will be running the event, is not a "tuxedo and tails" auctioneer. "He has done auctions in North Reading for the League of Women Voters and school P.T.O.'s," she says. "He only does one or two in the area per year. He's a very nice, very down-to-earth auctioneer."

Halligan's inventory will include a number of New England scenes, says Nichols, as well as some oils and Oriental pieces. Prices will start at approximately $15 for artwork, which is matted and framed. "The matting is exceptional. Some of it is very intricate," she says.

Tickets may be bought in advance by contacting Association President Bob Mirisola. A limited number of tickets will also be available at the door.

Open House At Nursery School

The Christ Church Nursery School, 25 Central St., Andover, will present an Open House on Tuesday, Feb. 4, to all parents interested in enrolling their child in one of its programs. The Open House will begin at 7 p.m. Parents will have a chance to meet the director/teacher and staff, see a slide show of the school and tour the facilities.

The nursery school is church-sponsored and open to all who apply. The school's philosophy is to promote a child's development in an atmosphere of loving concern. Children are offered stimulating activities in various areas, including social, intellectual, physical and creative. The school provides structures and free activities, free choice as well as direction. Interest lies in the total child and helping that child make the most of his or her abilities.

There will be four program choices offered to both age groups (three-year-olds and four-year-olds) for the next school year: one five-day option, Monday-Friday; one four-day option, Tuesday-Friday; and two three-day plans, either Monday-Wednesday-Friday or Monday-Tuesday-Thursday. Hours are from 9 a.m. to 1:45 p.m., from September to June, following the Andover public school calendar. There are separated classes for the three-year-olds and four-year-olds and some extended day available.

It is the policy of the school to offer 20 percent of the available spaces to children with mild special needs: financial, physical or social. Scholarships are available. Applications are being accepted for the 1986-87 school year. For more information and application forms, contact Debby Hughes.

N. Andover Man Has Lead Role

A North Andover man holds the pivotal role in Agatha Christie's "Murder at the Vicarage" despite the fact that the actor turns his back on the audience and seldom, if ever, utters a word in the current production at Amesbury's Playhouse Dinner Theatre.

Cast as the dour Colonel Protheroe, actor Jim Fazio meets his untimely demise early in the play. From then on, motives abound and suspicions run rampant.

"Murder at the Vicarage," described as vintage Agatha Christie at her best, runs through February 16 with evening performances Wednesdays through Saturdays and Sunday matinees on February 9 and 16. Reservations are required.

For seating information, call the box office.

Tryouts Tonight

Tryouts for the Andover Community Theatre production of "Alice," a musical based on Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland," will be tonight at 7 p.m. at West Elementary School Auditorium. Children in grades 1-6 may audition for parts while seventh through 12th graders and adults are invited to help with production. Children can recite and act out a favorite poem for their audition.

"Brigadoon" Comes To Life

"Brigadoon," Lerner & Loewe's captivating Scottish fantasy that introduced some of the American musical theatre's finest tunes, will be at Andover's J. Everett Collins Center for the Performing Arts on Monday, Feb. 3. The national tour of the enduring tale of love among the Scottish moors featuring songs like "Heather on the Hill" and "Almost Like Being in Love," will be on stage for one performance only at 7 p.m.

Brigadoon

The "Brigadoon" National Touring Company is presented by New York's Music Theatre Group, who brought "Oliver" to the Collins Center stage last year and received wide critical acclaim. "Brigadoon" is the second National Music Theatre Group tour for Director William Westbrooks, who directed last season's successful touring production of "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers." His directing credits also include "Shenandoah," starring John Raitt, and the recent touring revival of "Gypsy."

"Brigadoon" tells the story of two adventurers, one romantic and the other cynical. Vacationing in the Scottish highlands, they come across the town of Brigadoon that comes to life only one day every 100 years. The romantic fellow finds love and as the day closes, he is forced to decide whether to remain in this magic place or return to the hustle-bustle modern world.

Tickets are available at the Collins Center box office, Shawsheen Road, off Routes 133 and 92 in Andover.

by David A. Clement, Designer
REMODELING TRENDS

A state-of-the-art kitchen is a strong selling feature. It can affect a potential buyer's attitude toward the entire home. Always a focal point of activity, the kitchen is becoming even more central to 80's styles of living. Whether the renovation is major or involves mostly cosmetic changes, the emphasis is on new products and design concepts. Energy-saving appliances and contemporary European styling top the list of trends. While designer-look laminates are taking over in many of today's kitchens, wood is holding its own as an accent element. Open kitchens that are integrated into living areas continue to be in great demand. There also is a growing preference among buyers for soft lines and curves. They incorporate center islands, improving both appearance and traffic flow. You may want to follow the current trends or follow the beat to your own drummer. Whatever style you choose in cabinetry you'll find it at WINDSOR KITCHENS. We are your complete cabinet resource featuring cabinets in custom wood, custom laminates and European styles. We work with you to determine what features you want in your new kitchen and we save you money because we are professionals and get it right the first time. So stop in to 1181 Boston Rd., Ward Hill, Mon-Thurs: 9-5:30; Fri. til 8; Sat. til 2. Tel. 372-3444.

Blood Pressure Project Gets International Attention

Phillips Academy will host a conference Thursday, Jan. 30, for a group of approximately 30 British journalists interested in knowing more about the Exeter-Andover Blood Pressure Project, now in its second year.

In a national tour sponsored by the Flora Foundation in Britain, the journalists come from a broad range of British media interested in the latest findings on nutrition intervention. The United States, by virtue of research in recent years and the prevalence of federal nutrition reporting standards, is ahead of the United Kingdom in terms of current data. The purpose of their visit to Andover, as well as other colleges, and research universities, is to receive a progress report on the study and, hopefully, extrapolate the results to British adolescents.

The project, headed by Dr. R. Curtis Ellison of the University of Massachusetts Medical School, has entered its second of four years. Students of Phillips Academy and Phillips Exeter Academy participate. The project is designed to measure the effects of sodium and polyunsaturated fats on the blood pressure of adolescents. Last year, more than 200 Exeter students agreed to maintain a reduced sodium diet and have their blood pressure checked periodically while keeping a "diet diary." Andover served as a control group, with students eating a regular diet and keeping similar records. The schools exchanged roles this year and beginning in the fall will repeat the experiment substituting polyunsaturated fats for saturated fats.

One of the most interesting aspects of the project is that both schools alter the entire daily menu for all students during the years of testing. In addition to significant data regarding the effects of sodium and saturated fats on cardiovascular fitness, researchers and nutritionists involved in the study hope to make strides in development of new, healthier foods for institutional settings.

Women & Joint Custody

After divorce or separation, joint legal custody means that you and your husband must consult and agree on all major decisions governing your children's lives such as medical care, education and religious training. In recent years, joint legal custody has become very fashionable for separated and divorced couples because it appears to offer a way to involve both parents in their children's lives. However, joint legal custody requires you to maintain continued contact with your husband and may mean additional Court involvement in your family's life when you and your husband cannot agree.

Bishops' Pastoral Letter Focus Of Lecture

The pastoral letter now being drafted by the American Catholic bishops on the economy will be the subject of the third in a series of four lectures sponsored this year by the Campus Ministry Center at Merrimack College.

Rev. David Hollenbach, S.J., associate professor of moral theology at Weston School of Theology in Cambridge and a consultant to the committee of bishops drafting the pastoral, will discuss the process of developing the letter and the implications of the letter on Catholic social teaching on Sunday, Feb. 9, in Alumni Hall in McQuade Library on the North Andover campus.

A native of Philadelphia, Fr. Hollenbach entered the Society of Jesus in 1964 and was ordained in 1971. He holds a doctorate in religious ethics from Yale University. Fr. Hollenbach has taught at Georgetown University and the Yale Divinity School, was an intern at the Hastings Center for Society, Ethics and Life Sciences and served as a research associate at the Woodstock Theological Center in Washington, D.C.

He is the author of two books: "Claims in Conflict: Retrieving and Renewing the Catholic Human Rights Tradition," published in 1979 and

"Nuclear Ethics: A Christian Moral Argument" (1983), as well as articles and papers on the theological foundation of Christian social ethics as applied to such issues as human rights, international political and military policy and economic justice.

Drs. Joseph and Mercedes Iannone will give the fourth lecture on April 7 on Christian parenting.

For further information, contact the Merrimack College Campus Ministry Center.

Mass At Merrimack

The annual memorial Mass for Merrimack's first president will be celebrated on Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 7 p.m. in the Collegiate Church of Christ the Teacher.

Rev. John E. Deegan, O.S.A., president of the college, will be the principal celebrant of the Mass for the late Rev. Vincent A. McQuade, O.S.A., Ph.D. Rev. John V. Casey, O.S.A. will be the homilist. James J. St. Germain, professor emeritus, and Paul A. Shea, professor of sociology and acting associate dean of the college for arts and sciences, will serve as lectors.

Music will be led by the Alumni Chorale, under the direction of Rev. Thomas F. Walsh, O.S.A.

A reception will follow the Mass in the church auditorium.

The late Fr. McQuade, a native of Lawrence, served as president of Merrimack from the college's founding in 1947 until 1968. Through his leadership, Merrimack grew from a single, one-story structure (then known as Guild Hall) to a $15-million campus with an enrollment of more than 2,000 students.

At the time of his death in 1971, he was treasurer of the Augustinian province, with headquarters at Villanova.

Western Roundup

By Anneli Finn, Jessica Hill and Kristy Litchfield

The ninth grade students participated in a Career Day on Wednesday, Jan. 22. People from different professions came to the school to talk about the kinds of work done in that particular field, what skills are needed, how many years of education are needed and other information. The choices the students had were how to find a job, the military, journalism, social work, architecture, airline pilot, lawyer, public relations, veterinarian and broadcasting.

The school spelling bee was held Friday, Jan. 17, for seventh and eighth grade students. Participants in the spelling bee were the winners from their English classes. Winner of the spelling bee was Sanjiv Sheel and the runner-up was Sharon Wang. Sanjiv will represent West Junior High School in the Greater Lawrence Spelling Bee and compete with students from area schools. The winner of this contest will compete in Washington, D.C., with winners of similar spelling bees from all over the United States.

Crafts Boutique In Lowell

A group of local professional craftspeople will gather on January 31 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and February 1 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. to present a crafts boutique at the beautifully refurbished historic Commonwealth House at the intersection of Routes 133 and 38 in Lowell.

Heart themes will be plentiful throughout the house which will be decorated with Valentine gifts, St. Patrick's Day items, contemporary crafts and special country accents.

Among those showing and selling their work will be Jody Houghton of Nibs and Needles, calligraphy, and Carolyn Richards, pottery, both of Andover.

Also on exhibit to be purchased will be silk and dried flowers by Maureen Gillis, weaving by Louise Abbott of Threadbear and wooden products by Priscilla Grover of Country Bumpkin.

Baskets of gifts items by the Gifted Basket with Cathy Gilleland, Kate Landry and Susan Hamilton and gold, brass and silver jewelry crafted by Jill O'Reilly will also be available.

Also on exhibit for purchase will be fabric items by Nancy Bernard of Special Additions and children's gifts by Nancy Newcomb. Metal punch will be represented by Jayne Snowdale.

This approach of exhibiting fine handcrafts and gifts throughout the historic residence is unique and affords the visitors a change from the traditional craft show.

Summer Camp Program Offered

Andover residents are advised that the North Shore Jewish Community Center, Marblehead, has summer camp programs for preschoolers through teens at its 112-acre site in Middleton. Campgrounds are a 20-minute ride from Andover and transportation is included in the camp fee. There are a variety of programs to choose from, each lasting from two to eight weeks, during the 1986 camp season, June 30-August 22.

Camp Simchah, for preschoolers through eight graders, provides an excellent camp experience for four, six or eight weeks. Campers utilize the woods and trails, ballfields, basketball courts, archery range, 15-station Project Adventure course, arts and crafts space and shelters for inclement weather. Special features are the giant z-shaped swimming pool and the brand new Zimman tennis courts with their R.S.T.A.-approved, fast-play surface. Activities include athletics, arts projects, campcraft, music, nature study, Judaic programs, instructional and recreational swim, nearby boating and canoeing and a variety of special events. Through relationships with other group members and counselors, campers learn new skills, engage in new experiences and meet new challenges in an atmosphere of camaraderie and fun.

Camp Simchah also offers a structured counselor-in-training program for youths ages 14-16 to become responsible leaders. Workshops, combined with assisting counselors with campers and their activities, comprise the program. Ample time is provided to enjoy recreational camping activities.

Camp of the Arts is an innovative and creative program for fifth to tenth graders designed to provide extensive involvement in all aspects of fine and performing arts. Theatre, dance, music, visual arts, trips and special workshops in such areas as creative writing and puppetry fill campers' days. Four and eight-week options are available and each culminates in a musical performance. Participants also enjoy sports, games and swimming.

Outdoor Adventures, a series of four two-week programs for seventh to tenth graders, teaches skills to enable campers to enjoy fully the natural wonders of the outdoors. Led by John Lynch, who is returning for his fifth summer, campers train in a rustic area of the Middleton site for their excursions into the wilderness. They learn to become self-sufficient as well as to work as part of a team. Weekly trips range from one to five days and all activities are well-supervised.

Camp brochures, including all fee information, are available by calling the center. The JCC will hold a camp open house on Sunday, Feb. 9, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in Marblehead. Camping Services Director Judy Glott and other camp staff and committee members will be available to discuss summer camp programs.

Supper Assists Trip

Patrons of a "Papa Leone's Night" on Sunday, Feb. 2 at Merrimack College will not only enjoy an evening of Italian cuisine, but will also assist Merrimack students help the poor.

The spaghetti supper will be served from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the Murray Lounge of Gilda Hall (student center).

The supper is sponsored by Merrimack, a social action organization of Merrimack students, faculty and staff from the North Andover Catholic college. Each year, Merrimack members spend their spring vacations working in soup kitchens, shelters for the poor and other areas of need.

During this year's spring break (March 24-28), a group of Merrimack students will work at Fr. Bruce Ritter's Covenant House for Runaway Children in New York City. Another group will spend their week in Orland, Maine, working with the elderly and poor families as part of the H.O.M.E. (Homeworkers Organized for More Employment) program.

Proceeds from the Papa Leone night will help pay for the students' transportation

Workshop Presentations At Church

West Parish Church, United Church of Christ, Andover, will sponsor "The Road Less Travelled," a day of workshop presentations on February 1 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

There are numerous issues that concern each of us that need attention and discussions. West Parish Church has highlighted three major issues and invites the local communities to explore together the following concerns:

1. Parenting and working with children and teenagers in our society and particularly in our own community. One has only to look at the publicity, including an article in the TOWNSMAN describing an assembly held at the Collins Center recently called "The Teenage Social Scene in Andover - Whose Party Is It?" sponsored by the Andover High Parent Advisory Committee and led by Ruby Easton, head of high school guidance. It is clear that parents need more vehicles of this nature, more help, more discussion with each other.

2. The "Technical Fix," that is chemical dependency, including alcohol. This workshop consists of "I'll Never Do That!" a dramatic presentation about chemical dependency, a series of vignettes that deal with parties, weekend drinking, peer pressure, drinking and driving and family conflicts over substance abuse. It is described as a unique approach to sensitive issues with audience participation and discussion. The players are four recovering drug/alcohol abusers who are sober and drug free today. The program was created because these players are professional theatre people and have come to believe that knowledge about chemical dependency is a strong tool to use in its prevention.

3. Decisions made at the workplace and particularly in the nuclear defense industry. A participant at a conference on ministering to defense employees said, "As a Christian, I have been taught that it is my duty to be a peacemaker. Yet, as an employee of a high-technology industry, I support my family on money I make building nuclear weapons. How do I resolve the conflict between my religious principles and my participation in military projects?"

The Rev. Bob Bachelder from the Worcester City Missionary Society will conduct a workshop on "Working in the Nuclear Defense Industry." He has written some thoughtful and helpful papers on the subject. His papers touch upon the church's attitude toward nuclear freeze and has some thought-provoking things to say about Christian conscience and nuclear escapism. This is an issue that concerns all of us, whether or not we happen to work in the defense industries.

Registration is 8:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 1. There is no registration fee and lunch and snacks will be provided free. This program is underwritten by West Parish Church's Smith-Purdon Fund. Donations will be appreciated.

If you utter insults you will also hear them.

Peacemaking Series Offered

"Families Covenanting for Peace," a four-week series for parents and children and parents-to-be, will begin Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 6 p.m. at the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Andover at 6 Locke St.

"Covenanting for Peace" is designed to help parents and children discover the meaning of family, explore family traditions, develop the individual worth of each family member, strengthen the family unit and provide models for reducing tensions and for peaceful conflict resolution. Each meeting will focus around a meal and fun activities which give all family members an opportunity to discuss family "business"—responsibilities to each other and unresolved conflicts—in a supporting, nurturing setting.

Following a meal, the first session will be introduced by Rev. Rosemarie Smurzynski, minister of the church, and Marian Perregaux, religious education coordinator. The meetings on February 11 and 25 and March 4 will be led by Mrs. Perregaux.

There are openings in this family workshop. Those interested should call Rev. Smurzynski at the church office or Marian Perregaux in Draught.

"It's simply the smartest thing you can do."

Introducing the YourBlood Program at Bon Secours Hospital in Methuen, Massachusetts.

In today's world of ever-increasing uncertainties and baffling diseases, the time has come to look upon your own blood as a true personal asset. And, like any other valuable, you must now plan for how it can be protected in a quality-controlled, damage and contaminant-free environment so that you and your loved ones can be assured of a safe, secure and healthy future.

Participation in our YourBlood Program allows that to happen.

The unique central core of the YourBlood Program is our completely private, hospital-based blood depository that is linked to a system of security and safety checks that allows us to assure you that you will only get your own blood back. Within this absolutely regulated environment, your blood will be drawn, analyzed and stored in a frozen state until you need it. This private reserve of your own blood will be monitored 24-hours a day - every day - and protected in this fashion for up to 2½ years.

Along every step of the way, all activities are conducted and directly supervised by a trained staff of physicians, registered nurses and medical technicians.

Collecting and safely storing units of your own blood for your own use is a medical procedure whose time has come.

It is a fact that your own blood is the safest blood to receive because there is no risk of exposure to disease and it is completely compatible with your body. It is the ideal program for those individuals:

- who are personally concerned about the maintenance of a healthy future
- who are scheduled for elective surgery
- who possess a rare blood type and want the assurance of a readily available supply
- who want to be transfused with their own blood for religious reasons

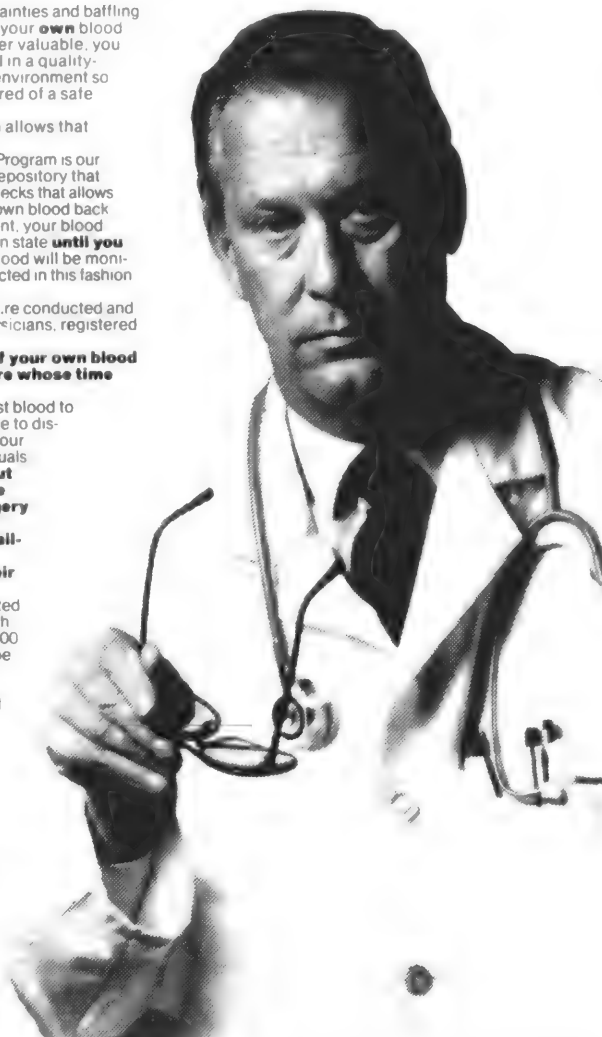

The YourBlood Program is a quality-oriented smart investment to protect your own health and welfare. By simply calling our toll-free 800 number, any question you might have will be completely answered, and an appointment will be made for you at your convenience to join our program at Bon Secours Hospital in Methuen, Massachusetts.

the town's motives in matters involving their area.

"No one's going to argue with this, on the surface," he said, gesturing toward a posted map of the Chandler Road site. But people were suspicious, he said; they wanted to know the hidden motives beneath the proposal. "All we want is answers—if this is what you are truly doing, fine."

He added that people had turned out in force because "they don't trust the town administration." At this, a few scattered members of the assembly applauded.

Chairman Margaret Bradshaw answered, "It is our intent to keep the traffic off Chandler Road." She challenged the assembly to tell her why the proposal wouldn't work.

Hearing participants did not take up the challenge. Instead, one suggested making the strip of SRC land 50 feet deep instead of 300.

Bradshaw explained that creating a 50-foot zoning change would be illegal. "You would be depriving the owners the use of their own land—it would not be usable for anything."

Sarkis Sarkisian, who owns ten acres of land along Chandler Road, told the board, "This proposal would take value away from our land, which has been zoned industrial for years."

Sarkisian's concerns were echoed later by another resident, Peter Konjoian, who owns a greenhouse. Stating that he would prefer to have the zoning remain industrial, he said, "We see problems when we go to expand our business."

Another abutter explained that, a number of years ago, industries in the area had promised their residential neighbors that they would not develop access routes along Chandler Road. They had kept their promises, she said.

Jeton explained that such "handshake deals"—informal good-faith agreements between landowners—might not hold in the face of the land's changing ownership. "Many of the companies have changed hands," she said. Under the present ID zoning, she explained, they have the right to use their land as they wish—which would legally include building access routes through it from Chandler Road.

Robert Davis, a Boston-based attorney representing GCA, Inc., explained that, were the

Seifert Out Of Running

Andover Superintendent Kenneth Seifert was informed on Monday that he was not in the running when the field of candidates for the state Commissioner of Education was narrowed to six.

Seifert had received a letter last week informing him that he was still in the running for the job when the selection process had narrowed to about one-third of the 60 original candidates.

Two of the six final candidates are school superintendents, according to Seifert.

"I certainly wish success to the next Commissioner of Education and I will support fully the person who is chosen," Seifert said.

The final six will be interviewed by the state Board of Education during two days of interviewing on Feb. 6 and 7.

zoning to be approved, his company would not be able use the land for virtually any purpose. In fact, he said, zoning setback requirements would make it impossible to build industrially within 100 feet of the 300-foot strip.

"We understand your concerns about traffic on Chandler Road," he said, but added that the proposed plan would also eliminate any attempt by GCA to put an access road across the property—parallel to and avoiding outlet on Chandler Road.

Davis then proposed a "no access" line along Chandler Road—a deed restriction clause that barred industry from use of the land as a direct access—in lieu of the zoning proposal.

The zoning proposal, he said in summary, was "a kind of a clumsy tool—you're painting with too broad a brush."

Jeton admonished Davis that proposals such as his would have the town "dealing in the public arena. Why should the town spend its time and resources arm-twisting private property owners, when a zoning change would accomplish the objective more simply?" she asked.

In response, Davis said that, after the public voted to rezone, the actual enforcement of that decision would be delayed for three years. He suggested that, knowing this, the industrial owners of Chandler Road land would quickly put together plans to get access through that land, so they could get value from that land before the rezoning took effect.

"That's not a route we really want to pursue; it's certainly not one you would want us to pursue," he said.

Representative for Wang Industries and Cabot, Cabot and Forbes—the current owners of the former Infinet Building—echoed Davis' call to compromise on the access issue, and indicated a willingness to talk with the town and other property owners about deed restrictions.

Chairman Bradshaw said that the board had been advised by counsel that deed restrictions would not be easily enforced.

Attorney Robert Zollner, legal counsel for the board, concurred. He explained that deed restriction was not a simple matter. If one owner should have a different interpretation of what that restriction means, he or she could create legal confusion or negate the desired effect of the clause.

Jeton set up a scenario for the audience. "Suppose we get all the property owners to agree but one," she said. "That owner later sells his property to an industry. What's going to happen on it? To totally protect the town, you have to have every property owner sign. Every single owner."

Resident Dorothy Coates addressed the crowd, saying, "Obviously, these companies are planning to use this road as an access in the near future, or they wouldn't be sending out their big guns tonight."

In answer to a question about the potential use of the rezoned strip for condominiums, Chairman Bradshaw explained that SRC bylaws would allow only one and one-half units per acre for multi-family housing.

In closing the hearing, Bradshaw put the potential for further discussion in the hands of the spokesmen for the industries, suggesting that teacher in space, he felt as if he knew her.

"I got to know Christa and her family, throughout her nine months training at NASA, through the media and newsletters that I would receive from NASA. It is a natural tendency to take a great interest when you are watching one of your own."

King was anxious for McAuliffe's return and to hear about her experiences.

"The result of the incident will be that there will be enough time and pressure on NASA to make the program safer. In 1967, when the Appollo moon capsule burned on the launch pad and killed Virgil I. Grisson, Edward White and Roger Chaffee, the result of the tragedy was to make the Appollo program safer. There will be pressure to redesign the shuttle and to use additional funds to make it safer."

The program has been under a severe financial strain, according to King.

"We have to redesign the shuttle. This is only a layman's opinion, but sitting on top of a gas tank, was an accident waiting to happen. I don't think they will be able to find enough pieces to figure out what happened."

King returned home and like most of the country sat stunned in front of the television.

"When my daughter saw me that afternoon, she said, 'Gee, dad, that could have been you.' It made me consider, Christa would have wanted the Teacher in Space program to go on. NASA selected the ten teachers and they have a back-up candidate, but if I had the opportunity tomorrow, I would go in a minute."

"I am very proud that Christa McAuliffe was chosen to represent all teachers. On Tuesday, my heart went out to her family. Many of the teachers in the country were anxiously awaiting her return. I watched the kids in Concord, N.H., and watched the jubilant, great time, turn to pathos. Christa was a super person and I'm proud she was chosen to represent all teachers."

Andover-Lawrence School On Emerson Campus Proposed

By Lisa Waterman

A "magnet" school on the Emerson College campus that will service students from Andover and Lawrence, was proposed by Andover Superintendent Kenneth Seifert and Lawrence Superintendent Eugene Thayer to Emerson College President Allen E. Koenig, last week.

The proposal will feature a school that would:

- Contain an Early Childhood—Grade 8 program for approximately 1,200 students. Students would participate on a volunteer basis.
- Secondary program for about 100 high school students.

The Early Childhood-Grade 8 program would highlight communications: radio and T.V. production—delivery and technology and comprehensive public speaking, performing arts—stage productions, on and off stage and the history of performing arts. The program would focus on a higher order of thinking skills, critical thinking instead of rote learning.

Science and Technology would highlight the use of computers, tele-communications and biological sciences. Communication disorders, involving speech therapy, hearing impaired and signing are curriculum proposals.

The secondary student program would feature: an advanced program of elementary experiences and advanced placement courses within Emerson College. A leadership institute that would teach such skills as how to prepare an agenda and conduct a meeting. The secondary program has varied time proposals, a half-day once a week or a full six-week period following which students would go back to their local high schools.

An Adult Continuing Education program with an extension program for adults who would like to be re-tooled for changes in technology or a career change would also be offered. A community leadership institute would be offered that would help individuals learn how to make things happen in their communities.

A Staff Renewal program would offer an in-service program for teachers and administrators of both towns. Staff development for teachers would involve computer assisted instruction, curriculum development, planning, delivery and instructional strategies.

Shared resources with Emerson College would be a benefit of the program. This would include the use of a performing arts center, television and radio stations, computers and Emerson's communication disorder clinic.

The program would help to desegregate and integrate the urban and suburban school districts.

"The state has a law on the books that in any desegregation effort by a school district, 90 percent of the effort will be paid by the Commonwealth," Supt. Seifert said.

The large Hispanic and Oriental population in the Lawrence School District would qualify them for state aid, according to Seifert.

The "magnet school" concept seeks to set up the most forward looking program involving technology, critical thinking and research and development, Seifert said.

"This will offer something that we can not get in our present learning environment and it is something we should have," Seifert said. "We are assuming in the near future there will be a population increase and this would solve some of the problem. I suspect there will be waiting lists in both towns for students who want to participate in the program."

Greater exchange and cooperation among social institutions must occur, according to both superintendents.

The Andover and Lawrence superintendents will ask both school districts to consider the proposal during tonight's meeting of the Lawrence School Committee. The Andover School Committee has been invited to attend.

People Disenfranchised? Selectmen Say No

By Susan K. O'Neill

Monday night, the Board of Selectmen heard a citizen's concerns that the Andover public feels "disenfranchised" from the town's government. The discussion between the selectmen and Debby Moggio of Hidden Road carried a note of iron-ny, in that it took place during the time reserved by the board for the airing of citizens' petitions and presentations—an item built into every selectmen's meeting agenda.

Speaking generally, Moggio noted that she has become aware that many Andover citizens seem to feel that the town's government demonstrates "a greater regard for results and expediency rather than the democratic process." These citizens, she said, perceive themselves as disenfranchised. "Perception, unchallenged, becomes reality," she said.

Moggio said that she felt that if she did not bring the general discontent to the attention of government officials, she herself would be guilty of the lack of communication now attributed to the government.

While conceding that the mood of helplessness extended well beyond Andover—and, in fact, was probably nationwide in scope—Moggio said that she felt it was the board's responsibility to show that it is open to communication.

Answering that, in his opinion, communication with constituents is a prime role of the selectmen, Chairman William Dalton said, "I think that there isn't a member on this board who isn't interested in doing so." To some extent, he added, the feeling of loss of citizen control might be "a function of the town's growing." He said that the board was open to suggestions on the handling of communication problems.

"That's the reason for this item (citizens' petitions and presentations) on the agenda," said Selectman Charles Weston.

"What's suggested here," said Selectman John Scileppi, "is that there's something going on that's not in the interest of the people of the town. I don't think there is."

Scileppi said that citizens with particular problems should discuss them with the board or with board members. Generalizations were not fair, because they cast doubt; "and doubt can be a very difficult thing to deal with," he said. "I am more than willing to sit down and discuss specifics."

Addressing the implication that he might not be accessible to his constituents, selectman Donn Byrne said, "Frankly, I resent it. I've always been available to discuss any issue."

Selectman Gerry Silverman ranked the discussion of generalities with the consideration of anonymous letters—which, he said, he avoids. "When we generalize and say things aren't working,

Atkins Names Two For Academies

U.S. Rep. Chet Atkins (D-5th) nominated two Andover High seniors seeking admission next year to one of the United States service academies.

Robert Pothier, 17, son of Robert and Elaine Pothier of High Plain Road, is seeking admission to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, New York. He is an outstanding student at Andover High and is a member of the varsity soccer and hockey teams. He is a cartoonist on the Yearbook staff, a Little League coach and does vocals and plays bass guitar for a local rock band.

Peter Quintal, 17, son of Richard and Patricia Quintal of Strawberry Hill Road, will be seeking admission to the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. Quintal is a member of the varsity gymnastics team and the varsity baseball team. In 1985, he was voted Most Valuable Player (M.V.P.) of the junior varsity baseball team. As a freshman, he received the Greco Trophy for outstanding performances in scholastics and athletics. Quintal is active in student government as a senior senator.

"It is a competitive process, based on SAT or ACT scores, class rank, grades, job experience, extracurricular activities, leadership potential, interviews and recommendations," Atkins said.

The service academies will make their final decision on admitting students by July 1, 1986.

"I would like to congratulate those nominated," Atkins said.

America's Tragedy

The nation mourns the loss of the seven brave men and women who perished in the explosion of the space shuttle Tuesday morning.

Knowledge that at some point in the space program such a tragedy might happen hardly diminishes the realization that on Tuesday millions of Americans witnessed the lives of seven people suddenly being taken from us.

Success of the space program over the years had led to a somewhat blasé attitude, as indicated by the fact that only a cable news network was filming the launch live. The three major networks opted for taping the event and proceeding with regular programming, until the disaster struck.

And, while the nation shares the grief of the families involved, we in this section of the country probably feel the loss more deeply because of the involvement of a neighbor, Christa McAuliffe of Concord, N.H., via Framingham.

The first civilian to board the shuttle, she was chosen from among thousands as the first teacher to lead a class from space.

Her vibrant personality and enthusiasm endeared her to the country.

On Tuesday, the joy and anticipation of witnessing the work of this educational pioneer was ended in the fiery contrails above Cape Canaveral.

As we move forward from this tragedy with heavy hearts, thinking of the personal losses being suffered, it seems fitting to reflect on the eloquent words of President Reagan who concluded his tribute on Tuesday with, "We shall never forget them or the last time we saw them, this morning, as they prepared for their journey and waved goodbye and slipped the surly bonds of Earth to touch the face of God."

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — January 1911

A grass fire near the coal pocket of the Marland Mills on Railroad Street was the cause of summoning the fire department on Wednesday evening. No damage resulted.

John E. Smith of High Street won the silver cup of Essex Street bowling alleys for the highest 50-string total during January.

The chimney on Richard Dodson's house in Frye Village was blown over by the high wind last Monday.

50 Years Ago — January 1936

Serious delay on the Junior High Project is becoming increasingly imminent because of failure of the P.W.A. to straighten out the furniture bids. It is stated this week that unless this matter is settled soon the auditorium might not be ready for graduation.

Dr. J.J. Daly, chairman of the local board of selectman, has written a local Congressman and the two Senators asking that they support any measures which may make it possible for W.P.A. help to be paid weekly. He also urged that the regulations be made less rigid so that more of Andover's unemployed could secure aid.

An appropriation of $162,010, as approved by the finance committee, will be requested by the school committee at the annual town meeting on Tuesday night. The committee in its original budget submitted to the finance group asked for $164,010, but the coal item and miscellaneous items were reduced by $1,000 each at the finance committee's request.

A total of well over $100,000 will be asked in special articles at the annual town meeting in March, it was learned last night. As compared with this approximate $110,000, only $85,100 was asked in special articles last year and of this only $26,090 was appropriated.

The local political situation took on new life this week with two developments. The final settling of Dr. Daly's opponents on Roy E. Hardy as the opposition candidate and the taking out of papers yesterday noon for unnamed persons for three unspecified offices. A local lady took out papers for selectman, but she may not file them.

A personally conducted tour through the universe is offered by Phillips Academy this evening at 8:15. A remarkable series of moving pictures in which the camera has combined with the world's largest telescopes to take the audience on a journey through the realms of space.

25 Years Ago — January 1961

The adequacy of the town meeting-selectman form of government will be studied by a committee of five, if voters at the March session approve an article inserted in the warrant by the Taxpayers Association.

The possibility of a delayed town meeting was averted Monday night when the Selectmen unanimously agreed to permit special articles of the Town Employee's Association to remain in the warrant.

With enthusiastic support from its members, the Andover Grange has announced that its building in West Andover will be used for the proposed teen center.

James J. O'Reilly, Princeton Ave., will be a candidate for School Committee at the election in March. He will be attempting to unseat Dr. Milton J. Meyers and William A. Doherty, both of whom filed their papers for re-election.

The Selectmen will vigorously oppose a request by a Methuen businessman to place a sign along Route 93.

10 Years Ago — January 1976

Susan Treanor Poore, Hobby Horse Farm, Osgood Street, has announced her candidacy for the office of Selectman.

If Andover teachers don't get the salary hike they're after by next Wednesday. They may go out on strike.

Andover voters will face a 56 article warrant when the annual Town Meeting convenes in April.

The Selectmen's race continues to be the most popular race for prospective Andover office seekers this year. Two additional entrants this week for the two three-year terms on the board are former Town Manager Richard J. Bowen and Atty. Lawrence Sullivan, were the latest to take out nomination papers at the town clerk's office. They will be getting into a race which includes George W. Connors, Jr., George Lannon, Donald T. Coleman and Susan T. Poore. School Committee candidates are David Ahouse, incumbent, and Atty. Paul L. Kenny, as of Wednesday for the two three-year terms.

On Losing Love Of Insurance Co.

By Susan K. O'Neill

There's a perfect stranger outside, staring at my car. I wish he'd go away.

The guy is an insurance appraiser. All those little figures he's jotting down on that paper in his clipboard add up to one nasty fact: my insurance company doesn't love me anymore.

They used to love me. They used to delight in my driving record; they even gave me a break on my premiums. We were a team, my insurance company and I.

Then I did the unpardonable. Almost two years ago, I moved to Massachusetts.

Insurance companies don't appreciate Massachusetts. To use the words of my second-grade teacher, Sr. Stanislaus, the insurance world considers Massachusetts a "near occasion of sin."

They don't call it that, of course. But the concept is the same—that there are terrible, almost satanic things lurking in Massachusetts, waiting to lay claim to a car's soul (even while road salt claims its body). Things like rush-hour traffic. Boston drivers. Rotaries. Six-lane highways held at bay by yield signs. Mall parking lots stalked by the demented. Parking along Route 28.

Where Sr. Stanislaus might have admonished us to pray for grace when faced by a "near occasion of sin," insurance companies command us to pay for our earthly protection in Massachusetts. And pay—and pay and pay—we do.

Not long after moving here, I laid claim to my first piece of the rock. That might have been a forgivable lapse.

But not three accidents in one year.

My insurance company doesn't love me anymore. They've taken back their safe-driver discount.

I called my company the other day to throw myself on their mercy. They're in San Antonio, Texas, where it's warm and conservative, and everybody wears military haircuts and drives around in mile-long, late-model Buicks; you might say we come at our relationship from oblique angles to begin with.

Our philosophical differences aside, I tried to convince them that I am worthy of their love in spite of my peccadillos. Perhaps, I explained, loftier eyes might even consider my car's weaknesses a sort of grace of character. My poor Honda is very giving. In all three encounters, it has been the one to give the most—probably because it has had the sad fortune to dance its little tangos with big, old, American cars.

But my insurance company, as it turns out, doesn't give points for charity. The lady I spoke to warned me that there is a limit to the money that my company will pay out to one person over a set time span. After that, I'll be putting snow chains on my bike.

She then refused to tell me what that limit was. "I'm sorry," she said, "I'm not allowed to give you that information. How do we know that you might not claim right up to that limit?"

She thinks I try to do this to myself???

In the meantime, now that my car's mangled—again—I've begun to notice how many other cars I see that also bear battle scars.

I am once again a member of some kind of universal brotherhood of Massachusetts' drivers.

But comfort doesn't come easy when your insurance company doesn't love you. There is no joy when you know that some stranger is kicking your tires and jotting down figures that might—just might—add up to the mystery figure that means they're going to cast you aside forever.

they get together to draw up alternatives to the proposed rezoning. They should then contact her, she said, and she and the board would set up a meeting to discuss those alternatives.

Contacted later concerning her reaction to the mood of the public hearing, Principal Planner Jeton said, "You can tell the people that I'm sad and weary."

"All the Planning Board is trying to do by this proposal is to improve the quality of life," she said. "I don't think they're guilty of what they were accused of last night." She said the suspicion of ulterior motives expressed by West Andover residents struck her as somewhat ironic, because the article had been drawn up as an answer to concerns voiced by those residents.

The three major concerns that Jeton felt the rezoning article addressed were those of traffic control on the road, industrial growth control, and expressed desires on the part of the citizenry that the board be more forward-looking in its planning.

Jeton felt that, in responding with suspicion to the proposal, West Andover residents had not yet focused on the fact that the property in question has been—and is—changing hands.

Selectmen

we've got to prove it."

He added that it was the responsibility of individuals to come forward and air their concerns. He noted that selectmen can be reached through calling Town Hall. "If someone wants to talk to us, we don't duck out," he said. "But we need specifics. If there are things to be heard, let's hear them."

Moggio wrapped up her side of the discussion by defending her use of generalities. She was, she said, presenting herself as an example to Andover's citizenry—demonstrating that the board is willing to hear what a constituent wants to say, and that a citizen can come before the board and survive.

Banquet

The annual blue and gold banquet will be held by Cub Scout Pack 76. All tiger cubs, cubs, webelos and their families are invited to attend. The banquet will be held in the West Junior High Cafeteria, Shawsheen Road, on Monday, Feb. 3, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Permits, Licenses Approved

Last Monday night, the Board of Selectmen granted joint permission to Massachusetts Electric Company and New England Telephone to relocate three poles on River Road and one on Porter Road.

The River Road changes will be made to accommodate the widening of that roadway. The Porter Road relocation will make way for a new street, Hammond Way.

Massachusetts Electric also received permission to construct underground conduits on Porter Road.

Also granted to New England Telephone were permits for maintenance of buried cable on:

- Peppercorn Lane;
- Cricket Circle;
- Gavin Circle;
- Windemere Drive;
- Wyncrest Circle.

An auctioneer license was granted, at the same meeting, to Michael R. Harkins of Canterbury Street.

Getting Defensive

Andover High hockey players gang up to help out goalie Bob Pothier during Warriors' 5-3 loss to Lawrence Central Catholic last Saturday.

Warriors Drop Heartbreaker In Overtime To Central

By Michael Muldoon.

The Andover High School boys' basketball team split their two games last week. They thrashed Wilmington then lost an overtime heartbreaker to Central Catholic in the battle of Merrimack Valley conference powers.

The Golden Warriors sprinted to a 21-9 first-period lead and never looked back in a 83-49 pummeling of Wilmington.

Andover utilized an aggressive zone press early and forced the inconsistent Wildcats (beat Methuen, lost to Central Catholic by 52) into numerous turnovers. Andover's red hot 19-25 first-half shooting resulted in a 52-23 lead at intermission. The early action highlight was a Doug Rotondi, two-handed, spread-eagle slam.

Before his early departure, Tim Perry dished out several assists. The starters sat most of the second half. Talented soph John Perry and hustling junior Jamie Clark helped Andover maintain the lead the rest of the way.

Tim Perry had 24 points, Doug Rotondi 19, Darren Currier 11, Jamie Clark 10, John Perry 8, John Klopacz 6, Mark Tucker 3 and Kurt Burzlaff 2.

Andover took a potent Central Catholic squad into overtime before falling 60-54.

The game was tight throughout. Andover had the biggest lead of the game 32-22 early in the second half. Central then began to heat up.

Central sank two foul shots for a 52-48 lead with 15 seconds left. The game was over, but with :10 remaining, Tim Perry, the state's third leading scorer, drilled both ends of a 1-1. He stole the ensuing inbound pass and with :07 left again hit both ends of a 1-1. For the second straight time, Central turned the ball over, but Andover missed a shot at the buzzer. Central shot 8-13 to Andover's 3-13 from the floor in the fourth quarter.

They outscored Andover 8-2 in o.t. and that was the ballgame. The Tim Perry/Doug Rotondi combo tallied 46 of the 54 Warrior points. Perry enhanced his reputation for clutch play by scoring 32 points against a defense designed to stop him.

Tim Perry had 32 points, Doug Rotondi 14, Mark Tucker and Darren Currier combined for 8 and fine defensive jobs against Central's big men.

Cashman Scores Goal

Chris Cashman scored the only goal as the Pee Wee A team lost to Cape Ann 6-1 in Danvers. Things looked quite good for the Pee Wees at the end of the first period with Cashman's goal putting them ahead 1-0.

However, Cape Ann tied the score two minutes into the second frame and then Andover gave up two costly power play goals at the end of the period, one a five-on-three situation.

Mike Murnane had good game in goal, in spite of what the score would indicate. Jim Morris and Todd Allard played good two-way hockey, providing some offensive threat as well as anchoring the defense. Gary Bleszinski also played his usual fine game and Cashman was superb.

Mike Ristuccia, Sean Darwin and Ed Thistle had several nifty breakaways stopped by the Cape Ann defense and Chris Pothier and Don Fraser were fearless in the corners.

The Pee Wee A's are looking forward to a break in league play as they prepare for the annual Andover Cup Tournament this weekend at Phillips Academy

Warrior Swimmers Defeated

The fledgling Andover High School men's swim team ran into a strong and experienced Haverhill High School team last Friday and, despite bringing their record to 2-1, turned in fine performances.

Senior Willie Kleschinsky was a triple winner, taking the 200 and 500 yard freestyle events for Coach Arthur Perdigao's mermen.

The 200 yard medley relay team of Pat Robb, David Grace, Chris Hart and Eric Buchholz placed second in the opening event while Kurt Nickerson was fifth to Kleschinsky in the 200 free.

Robb continued his improvement in the 200 yard I.M., taking three seconds off placing third. Swimming the event for the first time was frosh Mark Jurgen who came in fifth.

Buchholz was third in the 50 free, Jeff Hart fourth and Ron Atriasian fifth. Chris Hart finished third in the 100 yard butterfly with Vinnie Bates fifth.

Chris Perdigao won the diving competition in a tight battle with teammate Kyle Marcella who was second.

Buchholz was third, Jeff Hart fourth and Marcella fifth in the 100 free.

Kleschinsky won the 500 free with Bates a strong third and Jurgen fifth. Both swam personal and best times.

Robb was fourth and Nickerson fifth in the 100 back while Grace came from way back to take second place in the 100 yard breaststroke.

Kleschinsky completed his hat trick when he anchored the winning 400 yard freestyle relay. He teamed with Chris Hart, Jurgen and Bates for first place.

Nardone Named To Honor Roll

Mark Nardone of Andover was among 70 student/athletes at the University of Louisville named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll for the 1985 fall semester. The list includes student/athletes, representing all 17 varsity sports, who have achieved a 3.0 grade point average or better last semester.

Three athletes attained perfect 4.0 averages and seven additional athletes posted a 3.7 average or better. Of the 70 athletes listed, 34 have achieved a 3.0 or better accumulative grade point average.

"It is a fine achievement for these athletes to have academic success with the amount of time they are required to spend on their athletic pursuits," said Steve Milburn, director of athletic academic advisement. "These students have spent the time, energy and effort that it takes to be successful and it is an achievement of which they can be proud."

The athletes were honored at a special ceremony at halftime of the January 28 men's basketball game versus LaSalle. Each athlete received a certificate making them members of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

Three Teams Still Perfect

By Rick Harrison

St. Robert's A, defending champ Ballardvale United and St. Robert's C remained perfect as the Senior Division (13-15 years) of the Andover Church Basketball League reached the halfway mark, all three registering victories in last week's action at the Doherty and West Junior High gyms.

SRA improved to 6-0 with a 28-15 conquest of St. Augustine B, BU moved to 4-0 with a 35-21 decision over South Church, and St. Robert's C hiked its ledger to 4-0 following a 37-26 win over St. Augustine C.

St. Augustine A also broke into the victory column with a 37-21 triumph over St. Augustine B.

Something was due to give this past week among the top three, however, as Ballardvale and St. Robert's C locked horns in the first battle of the undefeateds.

In this showdown BU matched its strong inside offense against SRC's solid outside shooting.

Kevin Murphy of St. Robert's A continues to pace the Senior Division in scoring with 66 points, followed by teammate George Willard with 52, Brian Worcester of Ballardvale 48, Dan Fay of St. Robert's C 41 and Mike D'Angelo of St. Augustine B 41 points.

St. Robert's A, 28-15

The division tri-leaders used a balanced scoring attack to key the win, but didn't break things open until the third quarter when Patrick Hayes, Kevin Murphy and Mark Shwetz sparked a pivotal 11-0 run against St. Augustine B.

SAB hung tough for the first half, leading 7-6 after the opening period and trailing only 11-9 at intermission.

Murphy was game-high marksman with 6 points while Mark Green, Steve Smith, George Willard and Hayes added 4 points apiece.

Jason Blandini and Shwetz netted 3 points each to complete the SRA charge.

Pete Reming ignited upstart St. Augustine B with 4 points, Sean Gill pocketed 3 points, Ken Gable and Jim D'Angelo had field goals, and two free throws were swished by Mike D'Angelo and Mike Giammusso.

St. Augustine A, 37-21

Andy Collins tossed through eight second-period points as St. Augustine A went on a 15-3 burst, breaking open a tight contest against intra-church rival St. Augustine B.

SAB made a spirited third-period comeback, but the victors rebounded with a 12-6 fourth-quarter spree to put the game away.

Collins was top sharpshooter with 14 points, Mike LeBreck added 7, John Pike 6, Brett Cox 6, Jon Lane 2 and Steve Mollineaux a basket for St. Augustine A.

Mike D'Angelo sparked the counter-attack with 8 points, Ken Gable had 4 in the third stanza, Pete Reming pocketed 3 points, and solo buckets were notched by Brendan Sharkey, Sean Gill and Bob Nash.

Ryan LeGrow also played well for the A-team, while Jim D'Angelo and Mike Giammusso were

INFORMATION CONCERNING CABLE TELEVISION FOR EVERYONE.

By Jim Novo, JANUARY 30, 1986

VALUE OF BASIC Part four

Let's take a specific type of advertising, called Direct Response Television. You've seen them: "Call 1-800-OK-BUY IT, MasterCard and Visa accepted." They may even say "Ask for Sue". This is how an advertiser determines the effectiveness of a campaign. The calls are tracked by zip code to measure response rates; a station which achieves a high response rate (perhaps because the commercial appeared during a popular show) is a station that advertisers will spend more money on. These additional dollars enable the station to purchase better programming. Some of the ads suggest you mail your order to a station directly for fulfillment, especially for small consumer goods like records and kitchen aids.

Someone noticed an interesting fact: Phone calls and letters were originating from areas far outside the reach of the station's broadcast signal. LOTS OF THEM. How did all these people so far away see these ads?

St. Augustine's Leads Pack

By Jim Arnold

After six weeks of play, St. Augustine's C has assumed sole possession of first place in the Andover Church Basketball League's Junior Division. SAC clobbered St. Robert's C to remain the league's lone unbeaten.

St. Robert's D moved to within one game of first place by hammering previously unbeaten St. Augustine's B.

Also highlighting games played January 22 was Ballardvale United's first victory of the season.

St. Robert's D, 27-17

A 12-2 first-period SAD rally would prove too much for previously undefeated St. Augustine's B to overcome in this second-place battle.

SAB fought gamely in stanza two with three Mike McLellan hoops and shutout defense, but the talented SAD squad put together a strong shooting second half to seal the win.

John Camillus claimed SAD scoring honors with 8 points, Chris Filosi followed with 7, Ryan Jacobson and Frank Paone scored 4 each and Damon Belloradio and Aaron Fromm accounted for 2 apiece.

McLellan racked up 15 integers for SAB. John Donovan added the other bucket while Jeff Arsenault and Patrick Harding turned in sterling defensive efforts.

St. Augustine's C, 26-0

Todd Harris and Jeff Lembo each scored 8 points to pace SAC. Paul Allard contributed 6 digits while Sean Gauthier and Paul Cassidy added 2 each. Matt McCarthy led the airtight defense.

Kristen Ford and Sean Donahue played with poise for the St. Robert's quintet.

South, 11-7

Clutch-free throw shooting and sparkling defense highlighted South's victory over St. Augustine's E.

A pair of Rob Wyatt baskets and a Sam McLellan effort spelled a 6-2 opening quarter South advantage they would never relinquish.

Another McLellan hoop opened stanza two, before Chris Corcoran and Kirk Stockwood answered for SAE to make it 8-6 at halftime.

Period three was scoreless, save for a Stockwood free throw that cut the South edge to one point. But Wyatt stuck a pair of charity tosses and Brandy Companier added open to seal the SAE coffin.

Wyatt finished with 6 points, McLellan struck for 4 and Companie added 1 to round out the South scoring sheet. Lisa Smith, Sara Marchesault and Joey Kelley stole the show on defense.

Corcoran accounted for 4 SAE digits while Stockwood compiled 3. Pat Walsh and Kevin O'Brien turned in fine floor games.

Ballardvale United, 9-8

Chris Blongiewicz canned a pair of free throw with just over a minute left, then held on with his teammates to capture Ballardvale's first win of the season.

Ballardvale's Jennifer Msumba scored the opening quarter's only point on a free throw. However, Temple took a 4-3 lead on second-period baskets by Lee Baron and Andrew Male, the lone Ballardvale score coming from Danielle Sadler.

Mike Costello garnered the one third-quarter score, then converted to open the final stanza. but Male proceeded to connect twice for Temple and an 8-7 edge. That's when Blongiewicz stepped to the line and calmly settled things.

St. Robert's B, 24-7

Ken Oppenheim's eight first-half points paved the way to a 12-1 St. Robert's B advantage by intermission. James Perry managed the lone SRA digit against the aggressive B defense.

In the second half SRA dug too deep a hole to climb out of. Oppenheim led his squad with 12 points, Ian Begg produced 6, and Chris Kearn, Teddy Witman and Tim McGovern added 2 each. Erica Campbell prevented any defensive calamities.

For SRA, Perry had 3, Jon Iarribino 2 and Tommy Tanin 2. Brian Donoghue turned in a fine floor game.

St. Augustine's D, 17-8

A big first period boosted St. A's past an ever improving Temple Emanuel A team. Toby Guzowski keyed the early rally, hitting for seven of his game-high nine points in period one.

Greg LeBreck added 4 points in that decisive quarter, which ended with St. A's up 11-2. In the second period Tom Daily notched the only St. A's score. Jonathan Weiner had a bucket and free throw for Temple.

David Mazin had a third-period bucket. Greg Robinson added a fourth-quarter effort and Adam Moskal tossed in a free throw.

Hockey Team Wins

The Andover Squirt A hockey team skated to a hard-fought 7-5 victory on Saturday in a Valley League contest.

Andy Novelline notched four goals, including two in the first two minutes of the game. Linemate Steve Neal netted two goals and assisted on two others while Scott Munroe added a single tally.

Bob Daley was credited with two assists in the game. Dan McKew, Brendan Sheehy, Dan Trede and Novelline each had a single assist.

Blueliners Brendan Finneran, Adam Gurry, Jay Stella and Trede played a strong game in front of goaltender Fred Sunderland who made several big saves late in the game to preserve the victory.

Hoop Teams Forming

The Northern Essex County Association for Retarded Citizens announced plans to form two Special Olympic basketball teams; one for handicapped students aged 16-21 and the other for handicapped adults above the age of 22.

The teams will practice on Tuesdays from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Whitier Vocational High School, Haverhill. They will compete against other local teams, play in a Special Olympic qualifying tournament and possibly compete at the Massachusetts Special Olympic Basketball/Bowling Tournament at Fort Devens the weekend of April 5. Last year's N.E.C.A.R.C. adult team, the Warriors, won the gold medal at the special Olympic Spring games.

Athletes are being recruited. Interested individuals should contact N.E.C.A.R.C. N.E.C.A.R.C. is co-sponsor of the Essex County Special Olympics and is a member agency of the Merrimack Valley United Fund.

Pee Wees Prepare For Andover Cup

The Andover Pee Wee A's will host the ninth annual Andover Cup Tournament on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 1 and 2, at the Phillips Academy rink.

This year's invitational tournament will include teams from Concord, N.H., North Reading and Haverhill. Andover families will house players from Concord on Saturday night, "adopting" that player and including him or her in all family activities. Many have found that these player exchanges form the basis for lasting friendships.

Andover has fared very well in previous cup play, winning the tournament four times. After three years as runner-up, Concord took home the championship in 1985, but will find plenty of competition from determined Haverhill and North Reading teams.

Concord will meet Haverhill in the opening game at 6 p.m. Saturday, while Andover and North Reading will face off at 7 p.m. The consolation game will be played at 8 a.m. on Sunday with the championship game slated to begin at 9 a.m. Finally, the weekend festivities will be topped off with a Tournament Awards Luncheon at Bancroft Elementary School cafeteria at 11 a.m. for all players, coaches and parents. The luncheon will be hosted by Andover parents.

Bob and Elaine Pothier are coordinating the weekend activities with help from all Pee Wee parents.

and 100 free and Dan Lennon in the backstroke.

The Class A girls won the final event and the meet, defeating Lowell 44-42. The 400 free relay was dead even after the first two legs by Shawna Newland and Krista Carney. Then Amy Ford blew the race open and handed triple winner Michele Fox a half-a-pool-length lead to assure first place and the Class A victory.

Scoring seconds were Ford in the 200 free, Newland in the I.M., Maggie Skibba in the 500 free and 100 backstroke and Stephanie Ames in the backstroke.

Carney was third in the 100 free as was Debbie Rice in the butterfly.

Peter Abdinoor won the 200 free for the Class A boys. Scott Bates was second in the 50 free as was Abdinoor in the 100.

J.B. Burgess was third in the 100 free and 100 breaststroke as was Mark Jurgen in the 100 back.

Depot House of Pizza: Just Plain Good

You're back's against the wall. You worked late; everybody's starving.

You make a few suggestions, but all you discover is that nobody wants to eat anything that anybody else wants to eat.

What you have is the old What-Can-I-Do-for-Supper dilemma—a sticky situation that is not the least improved by finicky children who want something that they like—immediately. Or adults on diets. Or teenagers who deal in volume. Or time constraints.

Why buck the current? Why go crazy trying to please everybody, when you yourself need a break?

Depot House of Pizza, next to the railroad tracks on Essex Street in Andover, thrives on differences of taste. In one quick stop, you can please everybody—spaghetti for your big eaters; pizza for the kids; even a nutritious Greek salad for the dieter in the crew.

And you don't have to feel guilty about the nutrition end of it. Depot House of Pizza deals in freshness, not chemicals. Fresh tomato sauces with their own secret blends of herbs and spices. Grinders on rolls that taste like they've just popped out of the oven. Great hot and cold fillings. Generous servings of pasta, to fill up the bottomless pits of their stomachs. Nothing fancy; nothing greasy. Just plain good food.

Depot food is different from ordinary take-out fare because owner/chef Jimmy Kakoutsis puts more than 20 years of experience into it. "I know what I'm doing," he says. "I make everything from scratch, fresh—even the pizza dough."

When your back's against the wall and you know you can't please everybody, don't try. Let Depot House of Pizza please them—and you. Depot, at 53 Essex St., is open from 11 to 11, every day. Stop by—or, if the tribe gets restless, call ahead at 475-0055 to have your order waiting.

Tom Manzi Dodge: Playing for Keeps

Some businesses in this world are out to make a quick buck. They might give you a great price, but when they've packed up and moved on to the next "big deal", you're left with any discontent you might have bought with your bargain.

They've got their profits; why should they worry about you?

Yes, there are those kinds of businesses. And, at the opposite end of the spectrum, there's Tom Manzi Dodge, which has made a 35-year tradition of caring about its customers—a tradition that brings many of those customers back, year after year.

Customers come, the first time, because of the great Dodge cars. Like the Lancer, which outperforms the BMW and the Mercedes Benz in accelerating, cornering and stopping—at about half the price.

Or Dodge's Caravan, which can seat up to eight passengers, and is the only vehicle in its category to feature front-wheel-drive.

Or the businesslike Dodge 600. Or, for the sports car enthusiast, the Daytona Turbo Z.

The cars bring Tom Manzi's customers in. So does the 5 year/50,000 mile warranty—Dodge is the only company that has it. So does the financing—there are discount finance rates, running as low as 7.5 %, on most of the vehicles that Manzi sells (or, if you don't plan to finance, you can get $500-$1000 back on most models, including pick-ups, to spend on whatever you like).

All that gives Tom Manzi Dodge business. But it's the service that gives the company repeat business—the repeat business that has made Tom Manzi Dodge grow over these last 35 years. The service department at Tom Manzi Dodge ranks among the top 15% of Chrysler dealers' departments throughout the country, as determined by customer and corporate ratings.

In short, Tom Manzi Dodge not only wants your business, they want you back. And they'll work to bring you back. Tom Manzi not only "plays ball" with its customers, you see; Tom Manzi plays for keeps.

Tom Manzi Dodge, at Merrimack St. and S. Broadway in Lawrence, is open M-F 8-8 and Sat 9-5 for sales; M-F 8-5 for service. Call 683-9591.

(a) By deleting the material through subparagraph VI.O.1. and substituting the following:

"O. Multiple Dwelling: Where multiple dwelling is permitted in a Multi-Family use district as a matter of right, the regulations and conditions set forth in Section VI.O.1. below shall apply. In Single Residence A and B districts, creation of additional residential dwelling units within a dwelling existing prior to March 10, 1941, as provided in Section IV.B.3.a. of this By-Law, shall be by Special Permit of the Zoning Board of Appeals, subject to the regulations and provisions set forth in Section VI.O.2. below. The Zoning Board of Appeals (or the Planning Board, if so provided), may grant such Special Permits for the construction, conversion and occupancy of multiple dwellings, as are otherwise provided for in Section IV.B.3., but subject, however, to the regulations, conditions, and provisions set forth in subparagraphs VI.O.3. and 4. and 5. and 6. below, as they may be applicable.

1. In a Multi-Family District, creation of additional residential dwelling unit(s) shall be allowed only within a dwelling existing prior to March 10, 1941, as permitted by Section IV.B.3.a. of this By-Law:

- Applicability: Section VI.O.1. shall apply to conversions in a main dwelling structure only. Conversion of an accessory building into dwelling units shall not be allowed.
- Density: The maximum number of dwelling units allowed shall be determined according to the following criteria, all of which shall be satisfied:
 - There shall be at least two thousand five-hundred (2,500) square feet of lot area for each dwelling unit; and
 - Parking shall be provided on-site to meet the requirements of Section VI.A. of this Bylaw; and
 - The total footprint of all buildings (including the primary dwelling building, attached and detached garages, and accessory buildings), parking areas and driveways shall not occupy more than fifty (50) percent of the total lot area; and
 - Any increase in the gross floor area of the structure shall be limited to a maximum of fifty (50) percent of the gross floor area of the existing residential dwelling structure; and
 - Construction which physically connects two structures to be one dwelling structure shall be prohibited.

c. Landscaping and Buffering:

- A landscaped area shall be established in the front yard, which is defined as the space extending across the full width of the lot between the way on which the principal building thereon fronts and the nearest point of any building on the lot. A driveway for access to the side or rear of the lot may cross the front yard, but no parking area shall be allowed within the front yard boundaries;
- Landscape buffers shall be installed to protect adjacent properties from direct sight lines to parking area(s).

d. Plan Review: Prior to seeking a building permit from the Building Department, the applicant shall submit the following information to the Town Planning staff:

- A site plan, prepared by a Registered Architect, Registered Civil Engineer, or Registered Land Surveyor, indicating: lot boundaries and dimensions; number of existing and proposed dwelling units; existing and proposed building footprint; driveway(s); parking area(s); and details of the landscape buffer.
- Such front, side and rear elevation drawings as are necessary to show changes proposed to the exterior of the structure.

A written approval by the Town planning staff of such plans and elevations and the plans and elevation drawings themselves shall be incorporated into the Building Department's records prior to the issuance of a building permit.

2. In the SRA & SRB Districts, creation of additional residential dwelling unit(s) shall be allowed only within a dwelling existing prior to March 10, 1941, as permitted by Section IV.B.3.a. of this By-Law:

- There shall be two thousand five hundred (2,500) square feet of lot area for each dwelling unit;
- Parking shall be provided on-site as required by Section VI.A. of this Bylaw;
- The criteria of Section VIII.C. (Special Permits) of this Bylaw shall be met.
- By renumbering existing subparagraphs 2., 3., 4., & 5. as subparagraphs 3., 4., 5., & 6.

or pass or take any vote or action relative to any of said proposed amendments.

ARTICLE: To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning By-Law, Article VIII of the Town By-Laws, as follows:

(1) That Section III.A. is amended to add a new Section III.A.4. to read:

"4. Overlay District:
Flood Hazard Overlay District
Retail Priority Overlay District
Watershed Protection Overlay District"

(2) That Section III.B. is deleted in its entirety and replaced with a new Section III.B. to read:

"B. District Boundaries: the boundaries of districts are located and described by detailed written descriptions and/or by delineation on zoning maps on file in the office of the Town Clerk, which descriptions and delineations shall be deemed a part of the By-Law. Where detailed written descriptions and a zoning map each intend to describe the same boundary of a district and in so doing one appears to conflict with or differ from the other, then in all such cases the detailed written description shall be conclusive and prevail over the zoning map.

The boundaries of the Flood Hazard Overlay District shall, however, enclose all those areas designated Zone A, Zone A6, or Zone A9 on Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) maps titled "Flood Insurance Rate Maps, Town of Andover, MA., effective date August 1, 1978, and a Floodway is designated as shown on F.I.A. maps entitled "Flood Boundary and Floodway Maps, Town of Andover, MA., effective date August 1, 1978, in both cases as further specified in F.I.A. Flood Insurance Study, Town of Andover, February, 1978, all of which documents are on file with the Town Clerk, Planning Board and Inspector of Buildings."

- (i) the size and location of such use would not be incompatible with the general retail nature of the Retail Priority Overlay District; and (ii) that the Central Business District and the Retail Priority Overlay District in which the use is sought are not at the time of the special permit oversupplied or saturated with the use applied for:

- (1) banking establishment.
- (2) self-service laundry and/or drycleaning operation.

(3) Watershed Protection Overlay District: for rules and provisions regulating and limiting the use of land and construction of buildings in the Watershed Protection Overlay District, see and comply with Section VI.P. of this By-Law."

(1) That Section V.B.7.a. is deleted in its entirety and replaced with a new Section V.B.7.a. to read:

"a. No building in a business district shall be erected or expanded within fifteen (15) feet of a building containing a residential use, regardless of the zoning district in which said building containing a residential use is located."

(2) That the title of Section VI.C. is changed from "Landscaping" to "Landscaping, Buffering, Lighting".

(3) That Section VI.C. is amended to add a new Section VI.C.3., as so amended to read:

"3. In General Business Districts, all lots in use other than solely as single family residential shall meet the following standards:

a. A buffer area shall be provided for screening purposes along the entire length of each property line (excluding driveway access points) which abuts either:

- (1) a lot which is zoned Multi-Family or Single Residence A,B, or C; or (2) a lot which contains a residential use, regardless of the zoning district in which said lot is located. The following standards shall apply:

i. Width: The buffer area shall measure at least five(5) feet in width.

ii. Screening Materials: The buffer area shall provide screening in accordance with the following design standards:

(a) If a landscaped treatment is selected, minimum requirements are plantings of evergreen shrubs measuring at least four (4) feet high at time of planting and which may be expected to form a six (6) foot high screen within three years, the entire length of the buffer area to be 80% or more opaque when viewed horizontally.

(b) If a fencing treatment is selected, minimum requirements are a solid fence six (6) feet in height with twenty percent (20%) or more of the fence face planted with evergreens, such screening to be compatible with the character of the neighborhood.

iii. Curbing: Where landscaped areas abut parking areas and/or driveways, the landscaped areas shall be protected from vehicular encroachment by curbs or berms.

iv. Maintenance: The owner of the property shall be responsible for the proper maintenance and replacement of all landscape materials. All fences shall be maintained in a safe condition. Planted screening shall be maintained and dead portions of any natural screening shall be promptly replaced.

b. Where exterior lighting is installed on said lot, it shall be designed and installed so as to prevent glare or overspill from the light source onto adjacent property or into any public way."

TOWN OF ANDOVER

PLANNING BOARD
PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with Chapter 40 G.L. Section 5, notice is hereby given that the Andover Planning Board will hold a Public Hearing, Tuesday, February 11, 1986, at 8:30 P.M., in the Memorial Auditorium, Whittier Street., Andover, MA, to consider the following amendments to the Zoning Bylaws:

ARTICLE:

To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning By-Law and its accompanying Zoning Map, Article VIII of the Town By-Laws, as follows:

That a new Section VI.P. is inserted to read as follows:

1. Purpose of District

A watershed protection overlay district is established in the Town of Andover or the following purposes:

- a. to preserve and protect the Town's drinking water resources by the protection of the lakes, bogs, streams, brooks, rills, marshes, swamps, ponds, and other water bodies and watercourses, and groundwater in the Fish Brook/Haggetts Pond watershed protection overlay district;

- b. to protect, preserve, and maintain the water table and water recharge areas within the Fish Brook/Haggetts Pond watershed protection overlay district so as to preserve present and potential sources of public drinking water supply;
- c. to protect the community from the detrimental use and development of land and waters within the watershed protection overlay district; and
- d. to conserve the water resources in the watershed protection overlay district of the Town of Andover for the health, safety and welfare, and enjoyment of its people.

2. Establishment and Definitive of District

- a. The intent of the Fish Brook/Haggetts Pond watershed protection overlay district is to include all the lands which create the catchment or drainage areas of Fish Brook or Haggetts Pond as part of their natural or man-made drainage system. The district includes all areas designated on the map titled "Haggetts Pond & Fish Brook Watershed Boundary Map" dated December 1985, prepared by David Dargie, as amended, on file in the Office of the Town Clerk, which is hereby made part of the Town zoning maps;
- b. When a property owner seeks Town approval for any work done on a parcel which straddles the Fish Brook/Haggetts Pond watershed protection overlay district boundary as shown on said map, the owner must include with his or her application a map on a scale of 1" equals 40' prepared by a Registered Professional Surveyor and approved in writing by the Town Engineer, which clearly shows the path which the boundary follows across the owner's parcel;
- c. The Fish Brook/Haggetts Pond watershed protection overlay district is an overlay district and shall be superimposed on the other districts established by this bylaw. Land in the watershed protection overlay district may be used for any purpose otherwise permitted in the underlying district, subject to the additional restrictions which follow in Sections VI.P.3 through VI.P.8.

3. Permitted Uses

The following uses are permitted within the watershed protection overlay district, provided that all necessary permits, orders, or approvals required by local, state, or federal law shall also be obtained:

- a. conservation of soil, water, plants, and wildlife;
- b. outdoor recreation, nature study, boating, fishing, and hunting where otherwise legally permitted;
- c. boat docks, landings, foot, bicycle, and/or horse paths and bridges;
- d. proper operation and maintenance of existing dams, splash boards, and other water control, supply and conservation devices;
- e. residential development, as permitted in the underlying district, with a maximum density of one unit per acre, or one unit per two-thirds of an acre for a Cluster Development;
- f. repair, maintenance and reconstruction of structures and uses lawfully existing prior to the adoption of this watershed protection overlay district may be continued as permitted under the Zoning Act. Existing structures and uses may be expanded provided that no more than 20% of the lot be covered by impervious materials;
- g. farming, gardening, nursery, conservation, forestry, harvesting, and grazing;
- h. earth removal as defined in Sections VI.E.1.2, 1.3, and 1.4 where such removal will not endanger ground or surface water quality and where nonconstruction excavation or grading shall not come closer than 4 feet above maximum groundwater elevation. The angle of graded slopes shall be no greater than that which can be held by existing or planned vegetation.

4. Special Permit Uses

The Planning Board may allow the following uses within the watershed protection overlay district upon issuance of a Special Permit and subject to any additional conditions the Planning Board may impose:

- a. those commercial, industrial, and institutional uses permitted in the underlying district, with a site plan review;
- b. ponds or other changes in water bodies or courses, created for swimming, fishing, or other recreational uses, agricultural use, or drainage improvements;
- c. the creation of ponds not subject to Conservation Commission jurisdiction under the Wetlands Protection Act;
- d. the storage, manufacture, or use of hazardous or toxic substances other than those prohibited by Section VI.P.5 below in a quantity that, if simultaneously spilled, discharged, or otherwise released, would cause any danger to public health or safety or would cause or contribute to an exceedance of any state or federal water quality criterion or standard, provided that such activities shall take place within a building and that all necessary measures shall be taken to prevent such spill, discharge, or other release of the substances from the building.

5. Prohibited Uses

The following uses are prohibited within the watershed protection overlay district:

- a. the location of landfills and the storage of salt and road de-icing chemicals;
- b. any building, structure, land-disturbing activities, excavation, or fill within 50 feet from the mean annual flood elevation of all water bodies and courses within the watershed protection district;
- c. general earth removal (sand pit) operations which would require the granting of a Special Permit from the Board of Selectmen under Section VI.E.1.1 of this Bylaw;
- d. the disposal of solid waste, other than brush;
- e. the storage and/or sale of petroleum (or any other refined petroleum product) except within the buildings which it will heat;
- f. the dumping of snow contaminated by de-icing chemicals;
- g. the disposal of hazardous materials.

6. Design Standards

Any development of land within the watershed protection overlay district shall meet the following design standards in addition to all standards imposed by the underlying zoning district. Where a lot straddles the watershed protection overlay district boundary, these standards shall apply to that portion of the lot in the watershed protection overlay district.

- a. For residential, industrial, commercial, or institutional use, the average slope of each lot shall not exceed 15%;

- b. For residential, industrial, commercial, or institutional use, at least 40% of the natural vegetation of each lot shall remain undisturbed and be protected from alteration or removal by a permanent deed restriction. A fully-executed deed restriction on said 40% area should be submitted by the developer with the plan, shall be held in escrow by the Town until a Special Permit or a Building Permit is issued, and shall thereupon be recorded. No more than 20% of each lot shall be covered by impervious materials.

For a Cluster Development, the 40% of each lot required to remain in natural vegetation is in addition to the 30% Open Space required for any Cluster Development.

Where development takes the form of an Attached Cluster multifamily dwelling under Section VI.O.5 of this bylaw, the open space required under Section VI.O.5(e) shall remain in its natural vegetated state by permanent deed restriction to be completed before approval of the plan, and no more than 20% of the total area of the development shall be covered by impervious materials.

If the existing natural vegetation is insufficient to prevent erosion, additional planting of native species shall be required;

- c. Where a lot is partially outside the watershed protection overlay district, the site plan shall, to the greatest extent possible, locate pollution sources, such as subsurface sewage disposal systems, outside the district;
- d. Vegetated areas shall be located in a configuration which will best serve to absorb and filter runoff and to reduce erosion and sedimentation from the lot;
- e. All construction and land disturbing activities within the watershed protection overlay district shall be designed or sited to minimize erosion and runoff, by such practices as minimizing the construction period, slope stabilization, ditch maintenance, filtering, sedimentation basins, and revegetation.
- f. Site design shall result in no increase in the peak rate and the total volume of stormwater runoff over predevelopment levels for a ten (10) year storm, unless the Planning Board determines that recharge is infeasible because of site conditions or is undesirable because of risks to water quality. Site design shall incorporate that combination of open and closed drainage methods which best serves to absorb and filter runoff and to reduce erosion and sedimentation.

7. Procedure for Issuance of a Special Permit:

- a. Filing of the application: Eight (8) complete copies of the application for a Special Permit for land use within the watershed protection overlay district shall be filed with the Planning Board on a form approved by the Planning Board;
- b. Review of other boards and agencies: Before acting upon the application, the Planning Board shall submit it to the following boards and agencies which may review it jointly or separately: the Board of Health, the Conservation Commission, the Department of Public Works, and other boards or agencies the Planning Board may deem appropriate. Any such agency to which petitions are referred for review shall submit such recommendations as it deems appropriate to the Planning Board and the applicant. Failure to make recommendations within twenty (20) days of receipt shall be deemed lack of comment or opposition.
- c. Further requirements for information: After the opportunity for review by other boards and agencies, the Planning Board may require the applicant to supply more specific information about the proposed development, as per questions and comments of the reviewing boards and agencies. Such additional information shall be submitted within ten (10) days after notice by the Planning Board.
- d. Criteria for Planning Board decision: The Board may grant a Special permit for land use within the watershed protection overlay district under Section VI.P.7 of this Bylaw only if it finds that the applicant has met the general requirements of Section VIII.C. of this bylaw and that the applicant has demonstrated the following:
 - (1) that the plan will not adversely affect the Town's drinking water resources;
 - (2) that the plan will not adversely affect the water table and water recharge areas within the Fish Brook/Haggetts Pond watershed protection overlay district;
 - (3) that the plan will protect the community from the detrimental use and development of land and waters within the watershed protection overlay district;
 - (4) that the plan will conserve the water resources in the watershed protection overlay district for the health, safety, and welfare, and enjoyment of the Town's people.

The Planning Board shall impose any conditions and restrictions required to mitigate any potential damage to water resources, and, in reaching its decision, will consider the simplicity, reliability, and effectiveness of these mitigating measures and the damage likely to result if these measures were to fail.

If the Planning Board disagrees with the recommendations of the Conservation Commission or the Board of Health, the reasons shall be stated in writing.

PETS IN THE "HOUSE FOR SALE"

A dog or a cat may be a home seller's best friend under ordinary conditions, but once your property is listed for sale, you must be extra careful that pet smells are eliminated. Most prospective buyers, even if they have pets of their own, and even if their pets smell just like yours do, will be put off by animal odors.

If you have a problem, you might hire a professional to clean your furniture and carpets or, if necessary, remove them from the property. If you have a cat box inside the house, check it frequently and keep the litter fresh.

When Realtors bring prospective buyers through your home, it's a good idea to let dogs or cats outside (if they are outdoor animals) or confine them to one area of the house. Some people have allergies and others have irrational fears of some pets. It may be hard for a buyer to appreciate your home through puffy, watery eyes or in between sneezes! If a buyer or his agent is afraid of being eaten by Fido, the chances of your home getting sold to that buyer are lessened, even if the house is exactly what he wants.

If you are considering a move, talk to the professionals at Realty USA, Schruender Real Estate. Call us at 685-5000 or stop by our office at 73 Chickering Road, North Andover.

PERSONAL USE OF VACATION HOME

Under today's tax laws, if you are claiming your vacation home as an investment property, you are restricted to personal use of no more than 14 days of 10% of the annual number of days the property is rented. If you exceed this number of "personal use days", you'll lose many of the important investment deductions, such as depreciation and utility and maintenance costs.

This 14 day limit of personal use can be extended if the visits are for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep. If this is your case, be sure you can document the fact that you actually did the maintenance work during that extra time period.

In the past, if you brought a relative or friend along, it was automatically considered personal. Now you can bring the whole family, as long as you can prove that you did maintenance work during the visit. Since the IRS is always looking for their share of taxes, you must be prudent about the number of visits and the timing. It is doubtful that they'll buy visits every weekend during the rental season.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Pynchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Parking Issues Discussed

The issue of parking raised its head for a few minutes at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Selectmen—then was quickly shifted into the lap of Town Manager Kenneth Mahony.

Chairman William Dalton told board members that he had been approached by citizens who had offered to suggest changes in the configuration of downtown parking lots—and, especially, the lot behind the Old Town Hall.

At issue, he explained, is the confusion caused by dual parking restrictions: the posted two-hour parking in tandem with hungry meters. Dalton suggested that business district customers who fed the meters, expecting to fulfill the requirements of the law, were dismayed when they found themselves ticketed for staying in their slot past the two-hour limit.

Selectman Donn Byrne suggested that discontent with the system came, not from customers, but from merchants who were trying to park near their businesses. "They're squawking because they're getting tickets because they're feeding the meters all day long," he said.

There ensued a brisk discussion on the merits of parking reform in the retail area, from which came suggestions about day-long and four-hour sticker parking.

Ultimately, the board agreed to ask the merchants themselves for suggestions, and directed Mahony to send letters of inquiry to those business people whose establishments border the central downtown parking lot.

In other actions, the selectmen:

- heard a letter from the Department of Environmental Management concerning the acquisition of unnamed property within the Harold Parker State Forest—and asked Mahony to seek clarification of the issue:
